UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

AMERICAN EMBASSY

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

December 10, 1945

My dear Madame Mistral:

On the occasion of your receiving the Nobel Prize for Letters, I should like to add my warm personal congratulations. Not only is the award well-deserved, but it is a standing source of pride to all Americans that the award was made to you.

With kind regards, in which Mrs. Berle cordially joins, I am

Sincerely yours,
