AMERICAN EMBASSY

Santiago, October 3, 1942.

Office of Censorship
United States of America.

Gentlemen:

This letter is to request the favor that you examine the papers of Señora María Luisa Bombal as carefully and quickly as possible. She is one of the leading Chilean novelists who is on her way to New York where the Knopf Publishing Company plans to bring out her latest works in English translation. She is carrying manuscripts of some of her latest writings and fears that she may have difficulty in getting these through the Office of the Censor. She has asked me to write this letter requesting that you take special care to see that none of the material should be lost or unduly delayed.

Very truly yours,

Lawrence Kinnaird
