Dear Ms. Dana:

We are preparing for publication in 1978 a revision of the Language for Daily Use series, by Mildred Dawson, et al., levels Red through Gold (Grades 2 through 8). The series will consist of 7 textbooks, 7 workbooks, and accompanying Teacher's Editions. We would very much like to have your permission to use the following selection(s) in the student textbook, Level Silver (seventh-grade volume of this series). It will be approximately 512 pages, clothbound, and will be distributed throughout the United States and Canada. It will be sold at the proposed wholesale school price of $5.40 (no discounts will be applied).

from "Where Shall We Dance?" by Gabriela Mistral. In the past you have granted us permission to use material by this poet. I am hoping you will be able to help us with this one. Thank you. (I am enclosing a copy of the lines we wish to reprint).

In granting us your permission, we would appreciate your including permission for transcription into Braille and/or large type. Also, please indicate the correct form of acknowledgment you wish us to use. We look forward to hearing from you.

P.S. We would also like permission to reprint this poem in the Teacher's Edition for LDU Silver. It will be about 640 pages, paperbound, and will be distributed free of charge to teachers using the Student's Edition with their classes.

Yours sincerely,

Paula Valentine
