Dear Miss Dana,

Thank you so much for the clipping regarding your translation.

I have just returned from Los Angeles where I discussed the film that my son had photographed in Latin America some months back. He is most enthusiastic about your book and will be dealing with you by mail regarding the privilege of using some of these poems in the development of the film.

He has been negotiating with a firm there with regard to editorial services and I know they will soon be back to him regarding the proposal.

Best regards and sincere thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Paul G. Edwards
